ABOUT US

CULTUROOT is an Indian based manufacture exporter which was started in 2016. We also specialize in yoga related products such as Copper Bottle, Copper tank, harem pants, yoga mats, etc. We try to present our products in pure unadulterated form straight from our manufacturers to our beneficiaries.

We ship our products globally and offer export services under both CIF and FOB Incoterms.

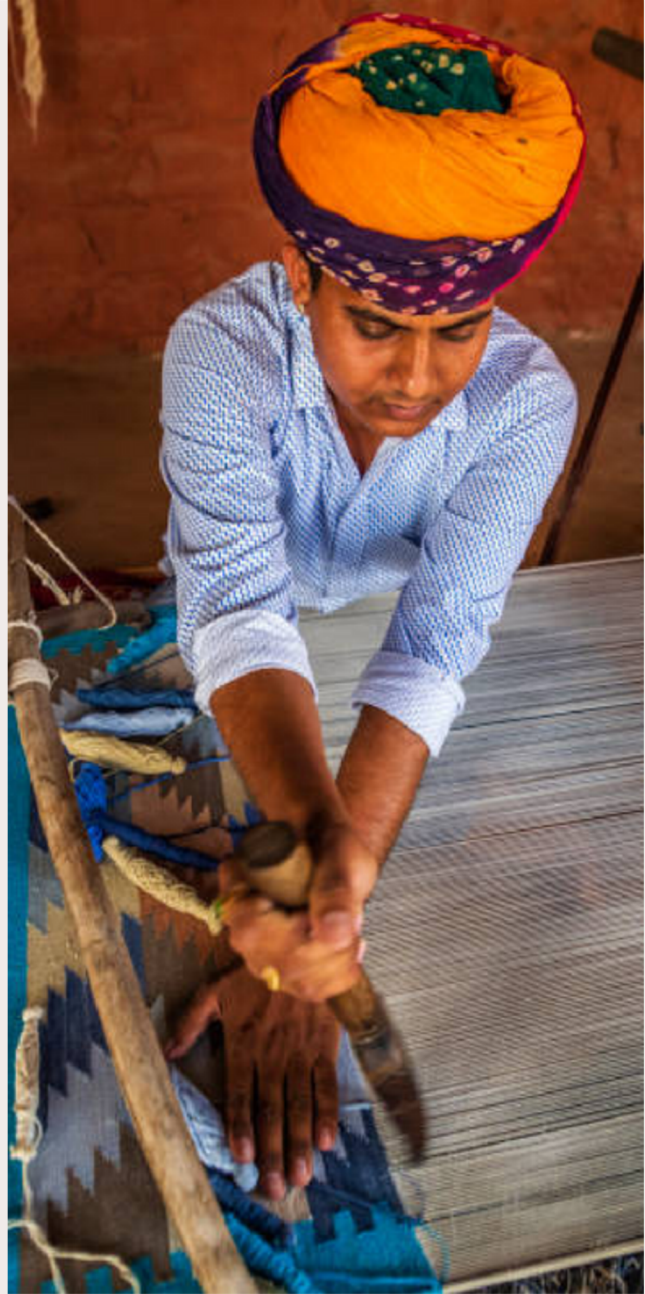

Our clients are like family—we prioritize their success by offering personalized support and recommending innovative products tailored to elevate their business growth and sales performance.

We serve a global clientele, and our community of trusted partners continues to grow daily as more businesses worldwide connect with us.

We supply comprehensive quality certifications to our clients, ensuring seamless import processes for our products in full compliance with global standards.
